

Steps you must take to apply for a place on a mobility programme*

- 1. Find out about all available programmes and choose the one that best suits your interests.
- Make sure you meet the requirements set out in the call (credits, languages, etc.).
- Contact the mobility tutors or coordinators.
- Fill in the application form.
- Wait for the list of allocated places to be published.
- Accept or decline the place within the period set in the calendar call.
- Send the host university the documentation required for your admission.
- Once you receive your acceptance letter you will be able to manage your accommodation, insurance, visa application, etc.

*This is the general application procedure. Please view the information for each specific programme for further guidelines on how to apply.

mobilitat.uib.cat